

Schools Announce New Principals for 2010-2011

Lawrence Catholic Academy

The Trustees of Lawrence Catholic Academy announced the appointment of Sr. Lucy Veilleux as the first Principal of the Academy. Sr. Lucy is currently the Principal of St. Patrick School in Lawrence. She earned both Master of Arts in Pastoral Ministry and Master of Education in Administration degrees from Boston College, where she was awarded the Catholic Educator Award Scholarship. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies and Education from Merrimack College, where she earned the Christian Leadership Award.

To read more, click here.

Central Catholic High School

After looking far and wide for the next principal of Central Catholic High School, the school realized that the best candidate was already a member of the CCHS educational community. “Ms. Doreen Keller, our current Assistant Principal, Dean of Students, has been named the 16th Principal of Central Catholic High School,” states President Bro. Thomas P. Long, FMS. “Ms. Keller will serve as the steward of our vital mission, which originated nearly 75 years ago in response to the pressing need for the Catholic education of youth in Lawrence.”

To read more, click here.

Mount Alvernia High School

Ms. Eileen McLaughlin has been appointed the new head of school. Kathelen Kent, current Head of School, stated, “I am delighted that Eileen will assume this role. She knows first hand the mission of this very special school. As the English department chair and the chair of the NEASC self-study in 2007-2008, she demonstrated a superior intellect, an enthusiastic spirit, a collegial manner and an authentic vision for Mount Alvernia.

To read more, click here.